

Treasury Department,

Bureau of the Mint,

Washington, D. C., May 19, 1899

Selbie, Esq.,

Cashier American National Bank,

Deadwood, South Dakota.

Your letter of the 9th instant to the Chief of the Secret Ser-has been referred to this Bureau.

In reply you are respectfully informed that it sometimes occurs the rolling of strips from which blanks of the coin are cut, blis-or air-bubbles form and this destroys the sonority of a coin from a blank cut from a strip of this character, while the coin genuine. The flaw you speak of finding on the rim of the coin is to blisters or air-bubbles.

Hereafter when any coins of this kind come within your observa-
I will thank you to note the Mint mark and advise this Bureau, if you will forward by registered mail any coin of this character will be redeemed.

Respectfully yours,

Director of the Mint.

Treasury Department,
Bureau of the Mint,
Washington, D.C.

May 19, 1899

William Selbie, Esq.,
Cashier
American National Bank,
Deadwood, South Dakota.

Sir:

Your letter of the 9th instant to the Chief of the Secret Service has been referred to this Bureau.

In reply you are respectfully informed that it sometimes occurs in the rolling of strips from which blanks of the coin are cut, blisters or air-bubbles form and this destroys the sonority of a coin struck from a blank out from a strip of this character, while the coin is genuine. The flaw you speak of finding on the rim of the coin is [also] due to blisters or air-bubbles.

Hereafter when any coins of this kind come within your observation, I will thank you to note the Mint mark and advise this Bureau, and if you will forward by registered mail any coin of this character it will be redeemed.

Respectfully yours,
[Signature] George E. Roberts
Director of the Mint.